in Description

Only 2% of AAUW membership includes women of color. What if our vision of ourselves as well-intentioned people is at odds with the reality of who we really are and what we really think?

Speaker: Betsy Harrington (AAUW-Greensboro) has facilitated many groups of adults and youth in having courageous conversations around difficult issues.

2022-2023 Fundraising

Our branch supports scholarships at four (4)
local schools

More info

AAUW-ODC funds scholarships at these local colleges and universities:

- UNC-Chapel Hill
- North Carolina Central University
- Durham Technical Community College
- Central Carolina Community College

To fund these scholarships we need to raise $5000 annually.

Help us help local women pursuing their educational goals. Donate today!

Welcome New Members

We have had SIX NEW members join the ODC branch since summer 2022!

- Heather Bristol
- Donita Robinson
- Katy Jones
- Sandy Kooistra
- Betty Myers
- Tiffini Patil

Please join me in welcoming these new members and involving them in our branch activities!

Renewal Reminder

GOOD NEWS for those members who have NOT YET renewed: National AAUW has extended your “GRACE” period to NOVEMBER 30TH. So, if you keep meaning to send in your check or Pay Pal the $88 annual renewal dues, you still have time before your membership expires and you are dropped from our branch roster. Don’t let that happen! Send a check made payable to AAUW-ODC to: AAUW-ODC, P.O. Box 9303, Chapel Hill, NC 27515 TODAY.

2022-2023 Yearbook

Member Kay White has been hard at work developing the Yearbook and Directory for our branch. Please be sure to renew your membership to ensure you are listed in our directory. It will be sent to members only via email in late October/early November. Kay has been putting the Yearbook together for the last 15 years! Thanks, Kay!!
