Meet the newest Central Carolina Community College AAUW-ODC Scholarship recipient:

My name is Jocelyne Guadalupe-Ramirez, and I am from Siler City. I am twenty years old and the first-gen student in my Hispanic family to attend college. My program of study at CCC is Associates of Arts, and (I) will be transferring to UNC-Chapel Hill this upcoming fall to get my Bachelors of Arts in Education. My intended major is Human Development and Family Science with a minor in either Speech and Hearing Sciences or Translation/Interpretation. Read Jocelyne's thank you letter - here.

Thank you!

I had the pleasure of meeting Jocelyne at the CCCC Foundation luncheon on Nov. 16. I learned that Jocelyne is the eldest of 3 daughters in her family. Setting a good example is a priority for her. While Jocelyn's father finished high school, her mother did not. Jocelyne wants very much to join the Carolina family and earn her 4-year degree. She intends to learn American Sign Language soon and hopes to study abroad while she's at Carolina. Jocelyne invited me to attend graduation at CCCC this spring. I can't wait! Cindy Parks, President AAUW-ODC

Guess who is turning 100? We will celebrate in person in the Spring. Details are forthcoming.

Our History

Special thanks to all those who came before us with establishing and sustaining a branch in Chapel Hill of what would become the American Association of University Women. It's a journey with a vision of Equity for All. Learn more about AAUW in this 3-minute video that celebrates 140 years of the national organization. Bet you didn't know how awesome we are!
